We are excited to add Marjorie
to our Forté Family!

Marjorie Blood has been making music in Toledo for 28 years. She grew up in northwest Indiana, beginning piano lessons at the age of 5. After a musical childhood of piano, singing, flute and oboe playing and English handbells, she moved to Michigan, where she got her B.M. in piano performance, with a minor in organ performance, at Hope College. From there, it was off to Massachusetts, to the University of Lowell to get a M.M. in piano performance. For the next 3 years, she played the organ and led the choir at Andover Baptist Church, taught group and private lessons at the Mary Johnson Piano Studio and private piano lessons at Gordon College.

Since moving to Toledo, Marjorie has taught private piano lessons, and performed in solo, duo and chamber concerts, as well as accompanying for several faculty recitals in Ohio and Indiana. She currently also plays the piano and sings on the worship team at Gateway Baptist Church, and accompanies the Jr./Sr. choir at Emmanuel Christian School.
