As our student enrollment has been growing, we are excited to welcome Jonathan Crayne to our Forté Family!

Jonathan Crayne is an instrumentalist from Southeast Michigan. He received his B.A. in the disciplines of music and philosophy from Adrian College in 2016. In college, Jonathan studied both classical and jazz music with guitar as his primary instrument.

He also was center snare in the AC marching band, he sang with chamber choir, and picked up skills on various instruments along the way. Throughout his music career Jonathan has been inspired by classic rock, alternative, blues, and indie music. He currently is the front man of his rock group, Wunderkid, for which he is also the manager and head songwriter. Jonathan also enjoys playing guitar for pit orchestras that back musical theatre productions. On occasion, he also performs on the theatre stage in guitar-driven roles such as Roger in RENT, Carl Perkins in Million Dollar Quartet, and (most recently) Guy in Once. It is Jonathan's belief that a wide variety of musical knowledge and experiences contribute to the development of a well-rounded musician. Whether music is your hobby or your career it is a rewarding outlet that can enrich your life and the lives of those around you!
