News:

As our student enrollment has been growing, we are excited to welcome Carlyn to our Forté Family!

Carlyn Campbell-Johannes has been playing the viola for more than twenty years, since she started as a fourth-grade student in northeast Ohio. She has played with ensembles in multiple states, including serving as viola section leader for the Sylvania Community Orchestra (2018 -present) and a student symphony at Ball State University (2011 - 2013). She has taught viola, violin, and oboe to students of all ability levels, from ages 5 to 65.

Carlyn earned her Bachelor of Arts in Psychology with minors in Music and Science from Bowling Green State University in 2011. She went on to earn her Master of Arts in Community Mental Health Counseling with a minor in Social Psychology from Ball State University in 2013.

When she's not playing her viola, Carlyn can be found working as the high school counselor at Toledo School for the Arts, crocheting all manner of blankets and creatures, officiating weddings, and playing Dungeons & Dragons with friends.

Carlyn is delighted to have so many opportunities to continue her musical growth through teaching and performance in the Toledo area!

Jennifer received her Bachelor of Fine Arts in Creative Writing from BGSU in 2015. Her poetry has appeared in The Seldom Review, for which she received an SCCC Creative Writing Award for College Writers in 2014. While in university, she was an editor for BGSU's literary magazine, Prairie Margins, and was a member of the English honors society, Sigma Tau Delta, for which she acted as Historian.

Although not very skilled in music, she dabbles from time to time. In school, she played trumpet, and was not too shabby. Now, she is the proud owner of one ukulele, which she kind of knows how to play, and one electric bass, of which she is yet to learn the mysteries. She hopes one day to learn how to play the banjo.

Jennifer's dream job is to be a seventeenth century pirate, or an eighteenth century English Navy sailor. Since that is not possible, she has settled into production work instead. She has two cats: Charlie, who is fat and friendly; and Gilligan, who is addicted to cheese.
